The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 24, to Saturday June 28, 1746.

Kenſington, June 25.

THIS Day was preſented to his Majeſty by the Reverend Mr. Samuel Chandler, attended by ſeveral of his Brethren, the humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Preſence, to offer our ſincereſt and warmeſt Congratulations for the happy Suppreſſion of that impious and unnatural Rebellion, which hath been excited and carried on by ungrateful and perjured Men, in Favour of an outlaw'd, abjured, and popiſh Pretender.

How juſt were our Fears at the unexpected Progreſs of this wicked Attempt; and to what ſubſtantial Miſeries muſt we have been reduced, had God for our Sins permitted it finally to proſper! Your Majeſty's juſt and equitable Government, and in this every dear and valuable Intereſt belonging to us as Men, Chriſtians, and Proteſtants, were the ſacred Objects immediately ſtruck at, and the Sacrifices intended to be made to the Ambition and Perfidy of France, the Superſtition and Cruelty of Rome, and the preſumptuous Claims of the deſperate and worthleſs Invader of your Majeſty's Dominions.

The ſeaſonable and entire Victory with which God hath bleſſed your Majeſty's Arms, is attended with ſo many happy Conſequences not only to theſe Kingdoms, but to the Proteſtant Religion and the Liberties of Europe, as will never be forgotten, whilſt we know how to value the ineſtimable Bleſſings it hath ſecured; and well deſerves all the moſt grateful and publick Acknowledgments to Almighty God, that a People doomed to Ruin, and ſaved by him from Deſtruction, is capable of returning.

The Choice of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, to be at the Head of your Majeſty's Forces on this important Occaſion, is the nobleſt Demonſtration of your Majeſty's high Regard for the National Welfare, and that in your Royal Breaſt the private Affection of a Father is taught to give Way to the publick Good; and will tranſmit the Remembrance of your Majeſty to all future Ages, under the moſt honourable Character that a King can bear, the Friend, the Father of your People. And how diſtinguiſhed is your Majeſty's Happineſs, that the Freeing theſe Kingdoms from Outrage, Sedition, and Rebellion, was by Providence reſerved for this illuſtrious Royal Youth, early treading the Paths of Glory, and formed under your great Example, to be a Scourge to your Majeſty's and his Country's Enemies, and a general Bleſſing to theſe favour'd Kingdoms.

That your Majeſty may long live, beloved and honour'd by all your Subjects, fear'd and ſubmitted to by all your Enemies, and be, under God, continued the Guardian of Liberty, and the Protector of true Religion: That all your Majeſty's Bleſſings may be hereditary, your Honours deſcend to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and the Succeſſion to your Imperial Crown never fail in your Auguſt Family. Theſe, Sir, are our fervent Prayers, and of all who wiſh well to themſelves, or have any juſt Concern for the Safety and Happineſs of their Poſterity.

To which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you for your Congratulations on the Succeſs of my Arms, under the Command of my Son the Duke, againſt the Rebels. I am truly ſenſible of the Zeal which you have ſhewed, upon all Occaſions, for the Support of my Government: And you may depend upon the Continuance of my Protection.

And they had all the Honour to kiſs his Majeſty's Hand.

The following Addreſs of the Governor, Council, and Burgeſſes of the Colony of Virginia, having been tranſmitted by William Gooch, Eſq; Lieutenant Governor of the ſaid Colony, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, was by him preſented to his Majeſty; who was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governor, Council, and Burgeſſes, now met in General Aſſembly, at the City of Williamsburgh, the twenty firſt Day of February, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's moſt glorious and gracious Reign.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO Permit us, your ever faithful People, to preſent your Majeſty with our moſt fervent Vows, for the laſting Proſperity of your Royal Perſon and Family; and alſo, with our unanimous Aſſociation, entered into this Day, to devote our Lives and Fortunes to that important Purpoſe.

United by every Tye which can bind a People, the Efforts of whoſe Gratitude cannot equal its Ardour, we moſt humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are among the moſt zealous of our Fellow-Subjects in your Royal Cauſe, although, through our remote Situation, we could not be among the foremoſt to profeſs our Loyalty; and that we are ready to oppoſe ourſelves to every Danger, which can affect the Safety of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Family, the ſureſt Defence, under God, of Britiſh Freedom and Religious Truth.

May the Great Lord of Hoſts go forth with your Majeſty's Armies; break the Bow, and knap the Spear in ſunder, which are impiouſly lifted up againſt His Anointed! May Heaven direct and proſper all your Majeſty's Councils; and may the King of Kings ſo hear the Prayers of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, that your Majeſty's Reign over us may be long and happy; and in Succeſſion, that of your Royal Houſe, to the laſt Moment of Time.

The Aſſociation.

WHEREAS there is an horrid and unnatural Rebellion formed and carried on in Scotland, excited by popiſh Treaſon, to deprive us of our Religion, Liberty and Properties, by dethroning (which God forbid) his ſacred Majeſty King George, our only lawful and rightful King; and by bringing in, to rule us with the Iron Rod of Cruelty and Uſurpation, an abjured Pretender, the abject Dependant on the Bigottry of Rome, and the Tyranny of Spain and France;

We the Governor, Council, and Burgeſſes of Virginia, now met in General Aſſembly, in Behalf of ourſelves, and of all the good People of this his Majeſty's moſt ancient Colony and Dominion, being unalterably determined to oppoſe and prevent, to our utmoſt, every Treaſon againſt the Perſon and Family of his moſt ſacred Majeſty King George, and any Subverſion of our moſt excellent Eſtabliſhment in Church or State; in Gratitude to his Majeſty, and Love to our Country, do voluntarily and willingly bind ourſelves, every one of us to the other, jointly and ſeverally, in the Band of one firm and loyal Society; and do hereby promiſe, that with our whole Powers, Bodies, Lives, and Eſtates, we, and every of us, will ſtand by and aſſiſt each other in the Support and Defence of his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government; and will withſtand, offend, and purſue, as well by Force of Arms, as by all other Means, the ſaid Popiſh Pretender and Traytors; and alſo all Manner of Perſons, of whatſoever State they be, and their Abettors, that ſhall attempt, act, counſel, or conſent, to any Thing that ſhall tend to the Harm of his Majeſty King George, or his Royal Highneſs Frederick Prince of Wales, or any of their Iſſue, or to the Subverſion of his Majeſty's Government. And we do, by this Inſtrument, declare, that no one of us ſhall, for any Reſpect of Perſon or Cauſes, or for Fear or Reward, ſeparate ourſelves from this Aſſociation, or fail in the Proſecution thereof, during our Lives.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough of Barneſtaple, in the County of Devon, having been preſented to the King, his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Barneſtaple in the County of Devon, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, to congratulate your Majeſty on the Succeſs of your Arms in North Britain, under the Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke.

Poſſeſs'd of a Spirit ever attach'd to Liberty, of a Courage and Reſolution derived from your Majeſty, in whom thoſe Virtues are ſo eminently conſpicuous, he was eager to approve himſelf himſelf worthy of his Royal Father; he flew to our Aſſiſtance when our Liberties were in Danger, and by his Prudence, his Valour and his Humanity, has convinced the deluded Favourers of a foreign Family, that your's, Sir, only is fit to govern.

May it ever, under the Protection of the Almighty, be Guardian of the Liberties of Europe and of your People; may this glorious Event be attended by the like Succeſs Abroad, and an honourable Peace with the Poſſeſſion of Cape Breton, the Reward of your earneſt Endeavours: May Riches flow into the Nation, and render your People happy, and your Majeſty the Comptroller of Europe; and may your People, ever free and ever happy, ſenſible of your Majeſty's Royal Wiſdom and Goodneſs, unanimouſly reject all Dependance and Regard for thoſe who are Abroad, and join in univerſal Obedience to the greateſt and beſt of Kings.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, the 19th Day of June, in the Twentieth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Tenby in the County of Pembroke, having been tranſmitted by William Owen, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the Town of Pembroke, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Tenby in the County of Pembroke.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's ſaid moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, being truly ſenſible of the late Danger which threatened our Conſtitution, and that our Religion and Liberty, with whatever elſe is dear and valuable to a Proteſtant Country, are, under Divine Providence, beſt preſerv'd and ſecured to us by the Continuance of the Crown in your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Houſe, beg Leave to join with the reſt of our Fellow-Subjects, in the moſt unfeigned Congratulations for the compleat Victory obtained over the Rebels by the Valour and Conduct of your Royal Son.

As our Apprehenſions about the Iſſue of the deteſtable Rebellion were dark and gloomy, ſo at the News of its Defeat, our Hearts overflow with the ſincereſt Joy: And every Briton muſt ſtand convinced of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Concern for your Subjects, from this among other Inſtances, that you was pleaſed to make Choice of the Duke for that Service, who, by expoſing his Royal Perſon to the moſt manifeſt Hazards, from the Fury of a mercileſs and bloody Rabble, and by putting our Enemies to utter Rout and Confuſion, has fruſtrated the Schemes of Popery and Ambition, reſcued our Conſtitution from impending Ruin, approv'd himſelf the true Offſpring of ſo heroick a Father, and thereby for ever endeared himſelf to the People of theſe Nations.

That the Almighty would vouchſafe to cover his Head in all Dangers; and grant your Majeſty long to reign over the Hearts and Affections of a free and a happy People: That all the Diſturbers of your Perſon and Government may ſo proſper as theſe Traitors have done; and that there may never be wanting one of your Royal Line to ſway the Sceptre of theſe Kingdoms, is our conſtant and moſt earneſt Prayer.

In Teſtimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal, in Common Council aſſembled, the 14th Day of June 1746.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Town of Beverley in the County of York, having been tranſmitted by Charles Pelham, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the ſaid Town, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Town of Beverley in the County of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Town of Beverley in the County of York, in Common Council aſſembled, think it our indiſpenſible Duty to preſent to your Majeſty our unfeigned Congratulations on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, under the wiſe and valiant Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, in the North.

The Diſappointment of our Enemies, in a Scheme calculated for the Deſtruction of our Religion, Laws and Liberties; and the ſudden and almoſt total Suppreſſion of a rebellious Force, threatening Devaſtation, Slavery and Oppreſſion, exceed even the moſt ardent Expectations of a loyal and affectionate People, and fill us with Hopes, that your Majeſty's prudent and mild Adminiſtration, your tender Care of your People, your ſteady Regard to our preſent Conſtitution in Church and State, and your your unſhaken Reſolution in maintaining the Proteſtant Cauſe, have firmly eſtabliſhed your Throne, and endear'd you to your Subjects.

May you long reign over a loyal and obedient People; may Succeſs ever attend your Councils and Arms; and may there never be wanting a Branch of your Royal Houſe to defend the Rights and Liberties of your Britiſh Dominions.

Given under our Common Seal the 5th of June 1746.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Common Council of the Royal Borough of Perth in North Britain, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Colonel Leſlie, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Common Council of the Royal Borough of Perth in North Britain.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Common-Council of the Borough of Perth, now that in your Royal Clemency, we do again enjoy our Privileges as a Royal Borough, by your Majeſty's Order in Council of the 28th of May laſt paſt, authoriſing us to elect Magiſtrates and Town Counſellors, according to our ancient Conſtitution, of which we were deprived by the late horrid Rebellion, beg Leave, with Hearts full of Gratitude to Heaven, humbly to congratulate your Majeſty on the bleſſed Event of the Cruſhing of that moſt wicked and audacious Attempt of Traitors againſt your Majeſty's Crown, and all that is valuable to your loyal Subjects.

When we reflect how theſe infatuated Rebels, whom no Oaths can bind, nor Mercy ſoften, were elated, and their Numbers increaſed by their Succeſs againſt ſome of your Majeſty's Troops at Preſton; how they impudently and impiouſly conſtructed of the tempeſtuous Winds and Rains, which prevented their total Overthrow by your Majeſty's Troops at Falkirk, as the Interpoſition of Heaven in their Behalf; and when we reflect, how that great Multitude of Traitors, upon the Approach of our glorious Deliverer his Royal Highneſs the Duke on the Head of your Majeſty's Troops, did retreat and fly before him, till in the near Neighbourhood of theſe barbarous Northern Parts of this Nation, where a Spirit of mad Diſloyalty is chiefly cheriſhed, he did find and defeat them in Battle, we cannot but maugre the Atheiſm and Infidelity of this Age, obſerve the Hand of God in this awful Event, as thereby his Royal Highneſs, being in the Heart of that Rebellious Country, has it the more in his Power to compleat our Deliverance from that wicked Rebellion, and to prevent our Fears of any After-Attempts of theſe ſilly Tools of haughty France.

May the moſt High God, by whom Kings reign, continue graciouſly to preſerve your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion to the Crown of Britain in your illuſtrious Houſe to the lateſt Ages; for as the true Intereſt of your Majeſty and your Royal Family, and that of the People of Britain and Ireland, are inſeparable both as to Sacred and Civil Concerns, the Stability of your Throne muſt fill our moſt enlarged Wiſhes; and this ſhall ever be our Prayer to God.

Signed in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, at Perth, the 10th Day of June 1746, by

Pat. Crie, Provoſt.

Stockholm, June 13, O. S. His Swediſh Majeſty has been very much indiſpoſed theſe three Days paſt with a ſevere Attack of the Gravel. The Swediſh French Officers at Gottenbourg have been told, that as many as are willing to repair to France at their own Expence, ſhall be employed in the Station and Rank they had been at firſt engaged to ſerve in; but ſuch as would not, were at Liberty to return home, or go where they pleaſed.

Vienna, June 25, N. S. Since the Arrival of Count Althan with the haſty Account of the Battle of Placentia, we have not received any Advices from Prince Lichtenſtein. The Right Wing of the Enemy was repulſed three Times, and was not routed but by the timely falling in of the Auſtrian Cavalry under the Command of General Lucheſi; whereas the Left Wing of the Enemy had repulſed the Auſtrians three Times before they met with the ſame Fate. Prince Lichtenſtein has obtained great Reputation. He was every where in the Action, and himſelf, though much indiſpoſed, order'd all the Diſpoſitions which were to be made. Before Count Althan ſet out from the Army, he ſaw M. de Gages's Adjutant, who had been to the Auſtrian Camp to demand an Armſtice for the burying of the Dead, and learnt from him, that ſeveral of the Enemy's General Officers were killed and wounded. M. Chevert and M. de Mirepoix were ſaid to be dangerouſly wounded.

Berlin, June 28, N. S. The King of Pruſſia arrived at Charlottenburg from Potzdam on the 26th Inſtant, and came to Town the ſame Evening, accompanied by his Brothers, Margrave Charles, the Duke of Holſtein, Prince Leopold of Deſſau, Count Podewils, M. Rudenſhiold the Swediſh Miniſter, and ſeveral Generals. The King ſupped at the Queen Mother's, and afterwards returned to Charlottenburg, whither the Queen Mother followed Yeſterday Noon. Great Diverſions, as Concerts, Plays, Maſquerades, and a Firework, are to be there, as alſo at Oranienburg and Reinsberg, during four Days in each Place. His Majeſty, it is ſaid, is to go to Sileſia towards the latter End of Auguſt.

Camp at Terbyde, July 5. The Heſſian Battalions arrived in Camp Yeſterday, and they appear to be in good Order; their Cloathing and Recruits will join them ſoon.

Rotterdam, July 5, N. S. The Heſſians joined the Allied Army Yeſterday. The Van-Guard of the Auſtrian Reinforcement from the Rhine, conſiſting of all their Light Horſe, is arrived at Roermonde.

Hague, July 1. We hear that the Empreſs Queen of Hungary has nominated Marſhal Bathiani to ſucceed Count Caunitz in the Poſt of Miniſter Plenipotentiary for the Government of the Auſtrian Netherlands.

Hague, July 5, N. S. It is ſaid here, that the 20,000 Auſtrians are to begin to paſs the Rhine, as this Day, at Keyſerſworth, and it is ſuppoſed Marſhal Bathiani may ſoon make a Motion towards his Left, to ſecure their Paſſage over the Meuſe at Venlo, and their Junction with the Allied Army. That of France continues, according to our Advices, quiet in its old Poſt; and the Siege of Mons does not ſeem puſhed on with any great Ardour. M. Vander Heim, the Penſionary of Holland, finds his Health ſo much impaired by the Fatigues of his Poſt, that he has demanded, and obtained Leave of his Maſters to make a Tour for ſix Weeks to Spa, and propoſes to ſet out To-morrow Se'nnight. The States of Holland have appointed M. Secretary Buys to manage in the mean Time, their Affairs in the Generality, and M. 'SGravemoer, as firſt Noble, will perform the Functions of Penſionary in their Aſſembly. By our Advices from Paris of the 1ſt Inſtant, N. S. the French loſt 4000 Men in the late Engagement near Placentia. The Chevalier Broglio, Colonel of the Regiment of Poitou, was killed, as were ſeveral other Colonels, and the Marquis de Mirepoix was dangerouſly wounded. The French Court was in great Conſternation, and Orders had been ſent to all the Troops in Franche Comte to march forthwith towards Italy. The ſame Letters mention, that Poſt Chaiſes had been ordered to be ready upon the Roads for the Return of the French King to the Army in the Netherlands, which it was ſuppoſed would take Place immediately after the Dauphineſs was brought to Bed; And that the Breſt Squadron put to Sea from Rochelle the 22d paſt, N. S.

The following is a Liſt of the ſaid Squadron, as we have received it from thence.
